

Published: January 7, 2010

Shopping With Alexandra Champalimaud

Adding a few carefully selected items is often all it takes to warm up even the most sparsely furnished rooms. That's the philosophy of the New York designer Alexandra Champalimaud, who suggests using materials like cashmere and fur and objects with color and texture to create an impression of warmth.

Related Article

4 of 8

Tora 23-inch-wide breu-wood tray; $1,550 at Espasso, (212) 219-0017, espasso.com.