PAULOWNIA

This flexible Japanese wood doesn't warp, so it's an excellent choice for wallpaper. Here it's mixed with Manila hemp to create a chevron effect.

DECO WOOD, TO THE TRADE. PHILLIP JEFFRIES; 800-576-5455; PHILLIPJEFFRIES.COM.

TAMARIND

This stunning wood—bold with marble-like veining—was salvaged from road construction sites in the Philippines.

PIERCED CUBE, 18" H x 18" W x 18" D, $1,500. TUCKER ROBBINS THROUGH SUITE NEW YORK; 877-278-4836; SUITENY.COM.

JATOBÁ

Crafted from a Brazilian wood, this oversize vase is for dried flowers only. We think it's a beautiful piece of sculpture on its own.

PILÃO VASE, 7" DIA x 20" H, $760. ETEL CARMONA FOR ESPASSO; 212-219-0017; ESPASSO.COM.

SONOKELING

This pocket-size magnifying glass is handcrafted by Indonesian artisans. The exotic handle stands out against the dark mahogany face.

MAGNIFYING GLASS, 5" H, $24. MAGNO DESIGN THROUGH AREAWARE; 212-226-5155; AREAWARE.COM.

LEMONWOOD

Moroccan lemon tree branches that no longer bear fruit are carved into soft yellow kitchen and bath accessories.

SOAP DISH, $16. CANVAS; 212-461-1496; CANVASHOMESTORE.COM.

SAPELLI

The best of both worlds: an African hardwood with the rich color of mahogany and the strength of oak.

ARROYO END TABLE, 26" H x 23" W x 28" D, $1,079. L. & J. G. STICKLEY; 800-777-3505; STICKLEY.COM.
