

HCG & G

Hamptons Cottages and Gardens

CANDGPUBLICATIONS.COM | JUNE 25, 2010

SPECIAL ISSUE

HOUSE HUNTING
IN THE HAMPTONS

Agenda

READ THIS

Iranian-born sisters Gisele and Moïgan Hariri, of the New York-based architectural firm Hariri & Hariri, have just published a book that showcases their cutting-edge projects, from a residential complex abutting a wall of rock in Salzburg, Austria, to the now-famous house and pool house they designed and built as part of the groundbreaking (and controversial) Houses at Sagaponac project. $39 (Image Publishing Group), at Bookhampton, 41 Main St., East Hampton, 631-324-4999

NEW IN TOWN

The Steven Alan store in East Hampton is putting a South American spin on its shop displays, featuring exotic outdoor furniture and accessories made by some of Brazil's hottest designers. The pieces, which come courtesy of the NYC showroom Espasso, are all created from sustainable woods. Shown: Parati chaise in peroba wood by Carlos Motta. $7788 without fabric. 32 Newtown Ln., 631-694-1726 —Donna Paul

< DO DROP IN

Moises Esquenazi (artist who lives in NYC) and his pieces from his new series works, "Natural Bound Sag Harbor June 26 to manicured hedges of the jungles of his native Cuba a fresh look at nature in and digital photograph Plexiglas and paper. $15 serigraph-style print or 631-725-1059.

OPENING AND ONGOING

June 26

Beaches & Bays Gal
Conservancy gala celebrating honoring Barbara Stirk and global conservatio
Rt. 114, East Hampton, 1

June 26

Artists Against Abu
celebrates its fifth anniversary with master of ceremonies host of "What's Hot in the Ross School, East Hampton thetreating.org

June 26-27

Antiques Sale | The F Society presents its ant featuring more than 10 2368 Montauk Hwy. Bridgehamptonhistoric

June 27

An Evening with Col Memorial Library Fourth Porter standards perform Mark Nadler, 6:30 p.m., Southampton, 631-283-

For more event listings go to www.hamptonscottages.com