Le Magazyn just hit the LA scene and its already making major moves. The Venice lifestyle boutique dedicated to mindful merch by Brazilian makers is now welcoming NY-based design gallery and furniture showroom Espasso to offer a unique shop-in-shop experience.

Following Espasso gallery openings in New York, Miami, and London, founder Carlos Junqueira's LA debut features visually awesome home accessories ranging from $1,500 for vintage pieces to $3,000-$40,000 (!) for exclusive furniture. The hefty price tags are due to the rarity of these items, as many are not available outside of Brazil or have specifically been commissioned by Espasso. If anything, the space is definitely work an Instagram moment.

Espasso at Le Magazyn is open Tuesday through Saturday from 11am to 6pm and Monday by appointment.
