Three Ducks From the Tropics

Published: February 27, 2003

ISAY WEINFELD'S first commercial line of furniture is a three-piece series playfully named after Donald Duck's nephews, Huey, Dewey and Louie -- or, as they are known in Portuguese, Huguinho, Zezinho and Luizinho. Made of tropical woods, the pieces look like three brothers who dress differently. Zezinho, above, a sideboard 106 inches long, 22 inches deep and 26 inches high, is made with veneers of timbaúba (on the left front panel) and cedro (the top) and is $9,500. Luizinho, a four-drawer dresser with a mirror, is made with guariúba and cedro veneer; it is 32 inches high, 47 inches long and 22 inches deep ($8,500). And Huguinho is a bar counter made with yellow muirapiranga and cedro ($9,000). Zezinho is at the new Espasso showroom, with his brethren expected to arrive shortly; 34-01 38th Avenue (fourth floor), Long Island City, Queens; by appointment, (718) 472-0022. RAUL A. BARRENECHE
