BRAZILIAN DESIGN IN NYC ‹‹

Since 2002, New York gallery and showroom Espasso has shown and sold furniture from midcentury Brazilian design masters as Oscar Niemeyer and Lucio Costa. It recently moved from its former home in Queens to a two-floor, 6,000 sq ft space in Tribeca, Manhattan, designed by architect Matthew Bremer, and it plans to add many more designers to its stable, which already includes Carlos Motta and Isay Weinfeld.
