Espresso, an excellent resource for Brazilian furniture, features the Esfera and Saquarema chairs (this page) in its memorable collection.

LLC, the famous design firm founded in 1976 by her late father. Hampton's work has been featured in numerous magazines, she has designed a line of fabrics for Kravet Fabrics, and is a senior design consultant for the PBS television show "This Old House." 654 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10021; 212-753-4110; www.markhampton.com. Burden & Izett: 180 Duane Street, New York, NY 10013; 212-941-8247; www.burdenandizett.net.

◆ Both Miles Redd and Jeffrey Bilhuber second Hampton's endorsements. "I absolutely adore B&I!" Bilhuber exclaims. "They deserve extra attention. B&I brought legitimacy to the antiques market in Tribeca, and said yes, you can live in a loft and have it filled with 18th-century pieces." Duane assembles decorative antiques, objects, and contemporary furniture.

Jeffrey Bilhuber, known for a contemporary spin on classic design, founded Bilhuber & Associates in 1984. In addition to working with clients including Anna Wintour, Iman and David Bowie, and Mariska Hargitay, Bilhuber is designing a line for Stark Carpets. He is the author of Jeffrey Bilhuber's Design Basics. 330 59th Street, New York, NY 10022; 212-308-4888; www.bilhuber.com. Miles Redd worked with decorator Bunny Williams before opening his own office in Nolita in 1998. Beyond New York, he has designed spaces in Miami Beach, Wyoming, and the south of France; his work has been seen in Vogue and Elle Decor. 77 Bleeker Street, Suite C111, New York, NY, 10012; 212-674-0902; www.milesredd.com.
